

FarmHouse Fraternity By the Numbers

One of the most common concerns about joining a fraternity is the cost. As you can see here, that's not a problem at FarmHouse.

HOW MUCH DOES FARMHOUSE COST?

One-Time Fees:

New Member/Initiation Fee $168.00
(Billed with first rent)

Breakage Fee: $50.00
(Billed with first rent)

Per Semester Fees:

Rent: $2498.00
(Only for in-House members)

International Dues: $105.00
(Billed to all members)

IFC Dues: $20.00
(Not included in first semester)

Enhancement Fee: $20.00
(For upgrades on House)

Other assessments may be billed as approved by the chapter.

All members, regardless of status, vote on all financial matters.

New members are required to move into the chapter house their first fall semester.

So, not including one-time fees, a typical semester of living at FarmHouse costs:

$2643.00

WHAT ABOUT ON-CAMPUS LIVING?

According to the Kansas State's Housing and Dining Services web page (http://housing.k-state.edu/reshalls/rates_2009_prepayment.php), the University expects you to pay the following for Residence Halls:

Per Semester Fees:

20 Meal Plan: $3376.00
(Special Suites cost $3076)

15 Meal Plan: $3332.00
(Special Suites cost $3036)

10 Meal Plan: $3302.00
(Special Suites cost $3006)

As you can see, on-campus living costs over $600 more per semester than living as a member of FarmHouse. That extra money more than covers the one-time fees, and dorm life doesn't offer nearly the amenities and activities we do.

FARMHOUSE IS THE BEST OPTION!!

No matter where you look, FarmHouse costs less. Cost, however, is not our only advantage. We offer the cleanest and safest living available. You'll also be joining one of the most respected organizations on the Kansas State campus, making lifelong connections.

As a member, you'll be partly responsible for the continued upkeep of the house. As for the safety, the main doors into the chapter house are protected with keyless entry number pads that only our members are given the code to.

Our food is the finest available, made by one of the best cooks around. Our cook prepares lunch and dinner Monday through Friday for all members of FarmHouse. They are meals that will remind you of the best you've ever had at home.

OTHER BENEFITS THAT ARE INCLUDED
